EVALUATION

1. A meeting and hunting trip took place on 12 January at Kelebia, a small Hungarian border village on the Budapest-Belgrade railway. The participants were Hungarian Prime Minister Ferenc Nagy, Arpad Szakasits, leader of the Hungarian Social Democratic Party, Deputy Prime Minister Matyas Rakosi, of the Hungarian Communist Party, and a Yugoslav delegation which included Tito. A proposed five year treaty between the two countries was discussed.

2. The treaty structure is to be elastic enough to allow the inclusion - after the Russian withdrawal and after the new Hungarian elections - of a customs union and mutual assistance clauses.

50X1-HUM

( Comment: The treaty in effect will make Hungary a part of the Soviet-oriented Danubian or Balkan bloc.)
